The problem of winter feed for winter dairying is solved by the alfalfa, sweet clover and other forage crops shown on the Roe alfalfa farm at Altario on June 18th.

Remember the Monitor Sports Day, June 30th. This is the big event of the season in this district and indications point to a larger attendance and more interesting program than ever before.

G. F. Beere and R.C. Trimble of the Soldier Settlement Board conducted business in Monitor and Consort districts Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Beere returned to Calgary on Friday.

On Friday night some of the baseball fans and business men of the town gathered at the baseball grounds and shaved the diamond of all weeds and grass. The diamond is now in first-class condition for fast play and some snappy games are being looked forward to.

C. B. Hough and J. H. McGirr returned from Calgary Thursday in a new Dodge roadster which Mr. McGirr purchased in the city. They report the roads rough in places but otherwise very good. Crops look good all the way, but in many places not as good as in this district.

On Monday evening of this week Monitor and district was visited by a nice gentle rain which continued almost without abatement throughout the night and Tuesday. This rain will of course be welcomed by the farmers of the district, as, while the crops were not suffering, it will add greatly to the prospects for a real bumper crop this year.

The different committees recently appointed for the purpose of deciding on matters connected with road work and weed destruction in District No. 332 met at Monitor on Wednesday, May 31st and held a lengthy session. In addition to the committee men G. N. Johnston, M. P. P. and Jas. McQueen, district engineer, attended the meeting.

We were so tired when the train started with even more unusual noise and the horses immediately tried to climb the elevator that I clutched Mary's arm and choked back a scream. And when order was restored, "Livingstone" turned to me and said, "I'm not bad, but calmly, 'Till I have to put these brutes on the plough, they are a tribe from." A tribe fresh—our lazy old Mr. Hartford had come to see Mrs. Carstone and to send for "the Restory ladies" have left me with many things to learn, I can plainly see! How glad I am that I did not scream!

We were only a few miles south of our destination, which was a fairly large two-storey wooden building, unpainted, but weather-stained to a lovely grey shade. A stout energetic-looking man, who had driven up and welcomed us with a smile that would put "the Sunshine" to shame, said,

"My, but I'm powerful glad to see you—I haven't had ladies to stay in my house since I came to Elsie." And she helped us down for I'm told we did not have the time to have a seat—

Then I turned to our driver, "Change!" But he seemed to have a nervous tic and with a hurried "The obligation is mine," he touched the horses with the whip and was off again. I could not help but decide whether he was offended, amused, or only shy.

Mrs. Mills (she had introduced herself with a graceful wave of her hand towards the sign board, "I'm her") laughed aloud.

"Goodness, if that ain't the funniest thing I ever seen!" Don Ingatson's had got more money than you could shake a stick at, an' to think of you in that place!"

And she went off into another spasm.

"My friend has not been in the country long, and she does not under-

Indoor Life

Spending more time indoors makes women far more subject to constipation than men.

The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated and the system poisoned by impurities.

If you would get away from the myriads of ills which result from constipation, it is only necessary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The benefits from their use are as lasting as they are prompt and certain.

Mrs. John Barry, 18 St. Amable Street, Quebec, Que., writes:

"This is to certify that I was troubled for years with constipation and tried all kinds of remedies without success. At last my husband suggested that I try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than any other medicine I have ever used. The last few months I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."

AST west's story told about the wicked Prince Carl and his wife, the Princess Elsa, who plotted to kill an old man who had come to them for shelter and to rob him of the sack that he had told them contained the most wonderful thing in the world. They entered his room in the middle of the night, expecting to find the old man asleep but he was not. Instead, they met the old man in his bed, his body raised and a great light encircling him, which seemed to affect the wicked in such a way that they were unable to move and only heard his words as though in a dream.

The man, surrounding the castle, said the old man in a voice deep with anger, "shall be your home after this. I who am a powerful Fairy in disguise, shall change you into two Black Swans and from the moment, so you will be unable to fly, you will be goodly until a little child shall really love you."

Princess Elsa screamed in terror, but it was of no use; for at that instant two Black Swans with brilliant red legs and blue wings have been seen the old man had disappeared. But there was no one; even the mysterious old man had disappeared! Stillness of the night enveloped the castle.

Had anyone been there to see they would also have noticed that great tears trickled down from the eyes of the two swans to the surface of the moat, which was now filled with beauty of the water.

The more the swans grieved, the more they forgot about the love and followers of the Prince and mistress, who had apparently disappeared from the face of the earth.

Every one noticed the two beautiful Swans; but no one could count them, as they had arrived from some distant countries.

Soon they stopped wondering, and before long the wicked Prince and Princess were forgotten, and after some time the castle was but an airy vine-covered ruin, a pile of neglected ruins.

There was no signs of life and the two Black Swans with brilliant red legs and blue wings have been seen the old man had disappeared. But there was no one; even the mysterious old man had disappeared!

Every one noticed the two beautiful Swans; but no one could count them, as they had arrived from some distant countries.

Soon they stopped wondering, and before long the wicked Prince and Princess were forgotten, and after some time the castle was but an airy vine-covered ruin, a pile of neglected ruins.

There was no signs of life and the two Black Swans with brilliant red legs and blue wings have been seen the old man had disappeared. But there was no one; even the mysterious old man had disappeared!

Stillness of the night enveloped the castle.

Had anyone been there to see they would also have noticed that great tears trickled down from the eyes of the two swans to the surface of the moat, which was now filled with beauty of the water.

The more the swans grieved, the more they forgot about the love and followers of the Prince and mistress, who had apparently disappeared from the face of the earth.

Accidental Death

A sad accident happened near Rollinson last Friday night which resulted in the death of Thomas Jarrett. The unfortunate man went out after some cattle, riding a quiet horse, he did not return and the next morning was found dead near a hay rake on the prairie. It is supposed that the horse fell in a hole and either crushed the rider or perhaps dragged him a distance after regaining its feet. Marks of blood were found on the rake which indicated that Mr. Jarrett had stood up by the rake and eventually weakened and died.

The deceased was born in Simcoe
Co. Ont. 47 years ago, he homesteaded near Llyodminster and sold out there in 1909 and came to the Wistle district in 1910 taking up a purchase homestead. He leaves to mourn his death five brothers and three sisters:
Robert of Sledalia, Andy of Rollinson, Alta, Ed in B. C., Chas. and William of Orilla, Ont. Mrs. Cook of Rollinson, Mrs. Blackwell, and Mrs. Letherdale of Ont. Interment was made at Chinook.

THE DAIRY COW

The dairy cow's a thing of charm; she lifts the mortgage from the farm, and makes the farmer's life more sweet, and sets him down on easy street. Wherever the dairy cow is queen, a country prosperous is seen, and dairymen, in joyful ranks, are packing bullion to the banks. Why plug along the same old way, producing nutmegs, corn and hay, and putting up a bankrupt wall if one year's crop should chance to fail? There is a better method now - the method of the dairy cow, this critter always earns her keep, and piles up riches while you sleep, and pays the taxes and the rents; and here in Canada, gents, we have the climate and the feed, and all conditions dairied need. So let us boost the dairy cow, which beats the old breech-loading plow; the holstein and the jersey too, as smooth as any cow in view. Let's talk up dairies, milk and cream, the safest money making scheme.

To the rubies, opals, emeralds and blue sapphires mined in the State of Queensland while have long had their principal market in Peking, there have added discoveries of orange sapphires. The miners have now asked the Government to pool the gems and market them on community account.

Bear Attacks Mail Stage

Driver of Yukon Coach Kills Unique Mail Robber

Bill Boulet has the distinction of being the only stage driver in the Yukon who ever had to kill a mail robber. He gives the four-horse stage on the long overland trail between White Horse and Dawson. Recently, while he is said to be the first mail man in the history of the Yukon, attacked Boulet's stage—and died.

It happened in Alberta, a roadhouse, on the long trail, where Boulet was paying an official call. Looking out of the window he saw an immense black bear on top of the couch, throwing his weight back to the ground and smashing express parcels. Boulet leveled his rifle and a dead bear tumbled to the ground.

Plague of Locusts in Russia

A plague of locusts promising greater destruction than that of last year, has developed in the Caucasus, Bakut, Kuban and Crimea. It is a serious blow to Soviet Russia's hopes for successful crops, and the peasants have mobilized to fight the pest with gasoline. Even airplanes have been utilized, being sent to drop poison bombs in the breeding areas.

Happy Albania

Happy Albania is the term applied to that country, for it is said that it occupies the unique position among European nations of being the only country which has no national debt and has a gold currency.

Medemi Frasheri, the head of the Albanian delegation to the conference at Genoa, in an interview indicated that all would be well with the country "if only we were left in peace for a little while."

A Vanishing Disease
Number of Tuberculosis Cases Are Being Rapidly Reduced

A report of the Tuberculosis Aid Association during the last fifty years indicates the progress possible in fighting certain kinds of disease. The fall in the tuberculosis death rate from 129.3 per thousand in 1913 to 56.2 per thousand in 1921 is already a matter of common knowledge. The society attributes the result to the opening of rural clinics, the establishment of rural clinics, summer camps, and recently enacted state laws of which the above are sometimes the result.

The great progress already made, however, seems little more than a healthy start toward actual eradication. The society announces the appropriation of between $300,000 and $400,000 for the year 1922, to be used by the Miltbank Memorial Fund, left by Elizabeth Miltbank Anderson. This money will be used for tuberculosis control. The results expected are similar to those secured in Framingham, Mass., during the last five years. There, for only $2.40 per inhabitant per year, tuberculosis deaths have been reduced 67 per cent. The Miltbank trustees hope for a demonstration of pulmonary disease paralleling the fall in typhoid from twenty-seven per 100,000 in 1913 to 10.5 in 1920.

ARE YOU A MOTHER?

Mrs. Dalton tells of a well-known Doctor, Dr. Pierce, who has sold his Young Mothers to take as a Tonic and Nervine because it contains no harmful ingredients.

London, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription saved my life years ago and for that reason I am most enthusiastic in my recommendation of it. I have many cases who are ailing and weak. I was taken to Dr. Pierce's office when I was in an expectant condition; then blood poison came into my family, became greatly alarmed. The doctor advised them to give me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had two small bottles of it and was restored to absolutely perfect health. I later took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and nervine and received great benefit from it. As a woman's medicine it is unequalled."—Mrs. Jessie Dalton, London, Ont.

Veteran Verities

Who umpired the ball game at Monitor Sunday?

Monitor played at Veteran Sunday June 11th. Base Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kruse motored to Bowlast last week returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Rooney of Killam spent the week end visiting the Sloughs.

Miss Pearl Mc Intosh of Reulam, Man, is spending her vacation with her sister Mrs. S. Henderson.

Mrs. O'Donoghue, Miss M. and Rosemary Keringer are visiting the former's brother at Maple Creek, Sask.

A number of Veterans spent June 3rd. at the picnic at Nose Hills. While playing foot ball out there Mr. Geo. Rolls of the Veteran team got his right arm broken.

Mr. R. S. Gilchrist and Mrs. L. Denham were married in Edmonton May 29th. They returned to Veteran Saturday evening last and will make their home at the "Orphanage."

The orphans are now living in the building previously used by Mr. D. J. O'Donoghue.

The local ball team journeyed to Monitor last Sunday for the scheduled game with that team. The umpire selected for the game seemed to have a sympathetic feeling for the home team and many protests were made to his decisions. The game was a long and unsatisfactory one but our team put up a creditable battle and graciously accepted the small end of a 9-4 score.

WISTE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Kienischroth were visiting at E. N. Miller's last Sunday.

Mr. H. Taggie left for the U. S. A. where a good situation is waiting for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Frazer were visiting at Henry Cunningham last Sunday.

Rev. James Durrian is attending the Methodist Conference at Calgary at present.

Hector McLean has sent in his resignation as manager of the Little Gem Co-operative store.

A U. F. A. meeting will be held at Little Gem on Friday, June 9th. at 8 p.m. Mr. George Johnson M. P. will be present and give an address. Everybody welcome.

The Wiste Baseball Social was a great success and the scenes of how the war was conducted was very well given and an enjoyable Evening was spent. The proceeds were $99.25. The boys are well pleased and thank all those present, and those who helped them along in their Entertainment.

They will play their first game at Nasco next Saturday June 11th. We expect a good turn out, as they have decided to have Saturday afternoons for a ½ day holiday until harvest.

Base Ball

As we go to press this morning we learn that the games last evening between Veteran and Loyalist at Loyalist, and Consort and Monitor at Monitor were won by Loyalist and Monitor. The Veteran Loyalist score was 16-3 and the Consort Monitor score 6-5. The outstanding features of the Loyalist Veteran game were the pitching of Herb Haier for Loyalist, and George McArthur's run with the bases full. The Consort Monitor game was anyone game all the way through it was tied at 5-5 in the eighth and Monitor pulled off the winning score in the ninth. Sherbino for Consort made a pinch hit that accounted for two runs. This is said to have been the most interesting game of the league series so far this summer.

Loyalist Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Connor.

Mr. Elliott is at present away on his holidays and is being relieved by Mr. Clark.

The dance last Friday night given for the ball team was quite well attended, and enjoyed by all.

Quite a number of the Loyalist people motored to the lake on Sunday to see the ball game. Loyalist won from Consort, score 12-5.

We noticed the weed inspector for this district in town a few days ago. He was getting a line up on those who have noxious weeds on their farms.

Some people thought last week that Cecil was training for the Nose Hills foot races, but it was for the ball game on Sunday. He can sure run to, when it is necessary.

Messrs. Barton, VanCleave and Farrell of Lethbridge passed through Loyalist last week on their way to Vermillion, they had with them between five and six hundred head of horses.

Additional Items

A Davids returned Tuesday from a weeks visit in Calgary.

Several teams and a considerable number of men are busy grading the street between Mr. Sanderson's Store and the depot.

G. E. Smith left Wednesday morning for B. C. where he will spend a few weeks with a view to locating in that province if conditions are satisfactory.

The Broadview Junior U. F. A. raised over $29.00 clear of all expense by conducting a refreshment booth at the Sports Day which was held at the school last Saturday.

The Consort Board of Trade held their regular meeting last Monday night in W. H. Shoup's office. Considerable business in regard to roads, telephones, etc. was discussed. It was also decided to try out the matter of a half holiday each week through the balance of June and July and a notice to that effect is published in this issue.

Rush British Troops To Scene Of Fighting In Belfast District

London.—Fighting between republicans and British is now in progress along a mile front in the Louth district, according to telegrams to the Central News. Seven lorry loads of British troops have been rushed to the scene from Newry.

Interest in the Irish situation has shifted to Ulster where the borderland disturbances and the Belfast outrages are more serious than ever. The conference of Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, and the Marquis of Londonderry, with Premier Lloyd George, were not productive of optimistic statements regarding the solution of the problem.

It is understood that the question of the support to be given to Northern Ireland in case of an invasion of that territory was considered, and an agreement reached. The situation remains grave.

The Evening Standard's Belfast correspondent says:

"Appealing disorders have occurred here, the like of which this city of horrors has never experienced before. Between seven and noon, ambulances were racing about the stricken areas. The streets were raked by machine gun fire, the rebels, in turn, bombed several places; the firemen fought flames while two whole blocks of houses were set on fire, and the battle waged in the streets all around.

"Nine civilians were carried out dead from this inferno, two of them women. Many were killed in houses, into which the rival factions pursued them in fury. The bodies were recovered only in time to prevent cremation."

"Bayonet charges by the military were necessary to dispel the mobs which gathered to join in the battle. The gunners retreated to the Grosvenor Road area where a fresh battle ensued. Invading Loyalists from North Street, Government Street, Donald Street and other thoroughfares. The crown forces had a difficult task in suppressing the gunners. Their concentrated fire reduced the gunners to silence for a while, but later the rebels mounted a machine gun and swept the streets, causing men, women and children to flee for their lives."

Advocates Direct Taxation

Woman Member at Ottawa Thinks Canadians Come Near to Dollar Worshippers

Ottawa.—The Government that supports it is going to take its life in its hands if the Government is not willing to take its life in its hands is probably not the best kind of Government.

So Miss Agnes Macphail, Canada's woman member, pleaded for direct taxation in the House of Commons. Miss Macphail's speech, which created considerable interest, was brief. She referred to the budget as one step forward and one step backward. She attacked protection, with which the Liberal party was "ridled," very much that Canadians had come very near to dollar worshippers, and urged a better rural credit system.

Decade Australian Settlers Urft

London.—The Western Australian Settlers' League complains that recent batches of immigrants include persons physically unfit and some unwilling to live a country life, says a Reuter despatch from Perth, Western Australia. The league has called a meeting of Australian settlers, including James M. Miller, who is now in London, emphasizing the urgent need of strict supervision in the selection and examination of prospective settlers for that state.

Less Crime in Calgary
Calgary.—Crime has been decreasing in the city of Calgary during the past several months. During May, 19 cases of drunkenness were heard in police court compared with 71 during the same month last year. There were 400 cases, half of which were bylaw infractions, in court during the month as against nearly 600 in May last year.

Indians Will Ride in Airplane

Sixty dollars will be the program arranged for a treaty celebration. Indians on the Cree reserve east of Iroquois Lake will receive their treaty money that day and have engaged the aviator to take them

London Museums

Are Overstocked

Art Treasures May be Loaned to Dominion Cities

London.—Decentralization of National Art collections by loans of the surplus treasures to the larger cities in the United Kingdom and the Dominions was decided at the annual meeting of the National Art Collections Fund at Burlington House. Sir Alfred Munnings, president, said the London museums were overstocked and their cells full of treasures. He especially advocated the circulation of British works of art in the larger cities in the Dominions and expressed the hope that the British museum would be given legal power like the other art galleries to circulate surplus works.

Sir Robert Will, trustee of the National Art Collections Fund, and one of the founders of the National Art Collections Fund, who presided at the meeting, urged the necessity of prohibiting the sale of works of art to go abroad and compensating the owners in cases where the refusal to sell to foreigners and the return of art treasures in this country would mean pecuniary loss.

Turks Continue Atrocities

British Cannot Act Until Reply Received from U.S.

London.—Acts of great barbarity are still being committed by the Turks against the Greeks in the Trebizond district of Asia Minor, Cecil Harrower, Canadian Secretary of Foreign Affairs, told the House of Commons when questioned on the subject.

Mr. Harrower gave independent witnesses who had just left Trebizond as authority for his statement. He said it was reported that little boys were collected in compounds and there allowed to starve to death. The British Government was doing all in its power to help the despatch of the proposed commission of enquiry, but no further action could be taken until a reply was received to the communication extended to the United States Government.

For these, only the children of deceased and permanently disabled soldiers and sailors and men of the air force are eligible. These bursaries will be of the value of $250 per annum, tenable for four years.

The choice of the university is left to the scholar and the Royal Military College may be substituted for a university.

To Prevent Liquor Importation

Ottawa.—John Millar (Qu'Appelle) asked in the House of Commons whether representations had been made to the Dominion Government "that could properly be construed as an effort to prevent the importation of alcoholic liquor into the province of Saskatchewan for the purpose of export to other Canadian provinces." "Yes," was the Prime Minister's brief reply.

Welsh Lawyers Executed

London.—Major Herbert R. Armstrong, a leading Welsh solicitor, convicted on a charge of poisoning his wife, was executed in Gloucester jail. His trial aroused great interest throughout the British Isles. He was the first member of the English bar to be executed for murder.

British Experts for Hague Conference

London.—The British experts to represent Great Britain at the Hague conference on Russian affairs were announced by Austen Chamberlain, the Government leader in the House of Commons. They will be Hilton Young and Sir Phillip Lloyd-Graeme, he said.

London.—With Germany undaunted, Premier Lloyd George had planned to make a brief statement on reparations in the House of Commons, but when John Robert Clynes, Labor member, opened the debate and attributed the present dimness to the Government, the Prime Minister launched into a lengthy defense of the reparations commission and the treaty of Versailles.

Mr. Lloyd George praised the German attitude towards the reparations commission, and said so long as she was not defiant, Germany could count on Britain's sympathy and understanding of the difficulties in meeting the treaty conditions. He declared, however, that there was no cause for Germany to be defiant. "Germany should be grateful to Great Britain for should Germany refuse to attempt to fulfill the commission's proposals, Great Britain's place would be at the side of the Versailles signatories despite the misrepresentations which were being made.

Great Britain believed in the traditional policy of moderation and fulfillment, continued the Prime Minister, and he gave warning that isolated action on the part of any one of the allied powers would be disastrous to the entire bloc.

"It is the policy pursued after Waterloo toward France when Prussia and Russia and other victors urged that France be trampled," said Mr. Lloyd George. "The Government in that day refused to countenance such a policy; we are pursuing the same course. But if Germany is defiant, if she should say 'this treaty we decline to carry out,' it would be different. A German policy of non-fulfillment would be a policy of immediate disaster."

"It is not a question of France acting alone. If there is defiance of the Versailles treaty, we are signatories to the treaty, which the House of Commons ratified. We are committed to it. In spite of all misrepresentations we still stand for the policy of moderation and fulfillment."

"It is a question of France acting alone. If there is defiance of the Versailles treaty, we are signatories to the treaty, which the House of Commons ratified. We are committed to it. In spite of all misrepresentations we still stand for the policy of moderation and fulfillment."

It is our opinion when a newspaper changes hands for the new editor to publish an introductory article. These articles vary some but usually leave the impression that the writer is a highly capable newspaper man who has eventually located in the "hot town in the west" and that the combination is bound to result in fame and fortune for all parties concerned. It is always difficult getting acquainted and getting started, and we ask your consideration in this respect. We trust that these lines will be sufficient to express our position and that our efforts will be satisfactory to all.

to the Order of His Honour Judge
Dudgeon, dated the 1st day of May, A.D.
